

The Gawler Foundation

An integrated approach to health healing and wellbeing

Case report

Thirty-year follow-up at pneumonectomy of a 58-year-old survivor of disseminated osteosarcoma

Prof George Jelinek MD Dip DHM FACEM

Professor of Emergency Medicine, Department of Emergency Medicine, University of Western Australia, Nedlands, Western Australia

Dr Ruth Gawler MB BS, MGPPsych, FACPsyMed

General Practitioner and Therapist, The Gawler Foundation, Yarra Junction, Victoria

December 2008

Abstract A 1978 case report in the Journal described a 25-year-old man with disseminated osteogenic sarcoma whose metastases regressed after treatment with diet and intensive meditation. Thirty years later, there has been no recurrence of his cancer, and a recent pneumonectomy for chronic bronchiectasis revealed mature cancellous bone in the resected lung. The man is otherwise well.

A pdf file of the full article published in the Medical Journal of Australia 2008; 89:663-665 can be found at www.gawler.org/research

Address for correspondence

Prof George Jelinek, Professor of Emergency Medicine, Department of Emergency Medicine, University of Western Australia, Hospital Avenue, Nedlands, Western Australia 6009, Australia. Telephone: +61 8 9346 4354. Email: george.jelinek@svhm.org.au